

Jordan Cline

(316) 833-9204 | jordancline009@gmail.com

Education

MA Criminology & Criminal Justice

August 2024 – May 2026

University of Nebraska Omaha

Graduate Assistant in research methods

Researcher in Violence Intervention & Policing Research (VIPR) Lab

BS Criminal Justice

May 2024

Wichita State University

Research Interests

Using quantitative methods to better understand and improve upon procedural justice.

Research Experience

University of Nebraska Omaha

August 2024 – May 2026

Graduate Research Assistant

- Working in the VIPR Lab under supervision of Dr. Nix

University of South Carolina

Summer 2023

Undergraduate Researcher

- Took part in National Science Foundation (NSF) funded Research Experience for Undergraduates focusing on disparities in the criminal justice system
 - Information about NSF grant can be provided
- Learned how to use Stata, comprehensive research and writing skills, and much more
- Presented research at symposium, article produced currently under R&R
- Worked closely with other undergraduate students, graduate students, and faculty

Wichita State University

December 2022 - May 2023

Undergraduate Researcher

- Worked as undergraduate research assistant under faculty supervision
- Randomized control trial that studied differential police response strategies to low risk and non-harm calls in Wichita
- Aided in fielding survey to respondents and data collection

Publications

Cline, J., and other authors. 2024. Beyond George Floyd: Examining the Intersection of Race, Racial Resentment, and Police Fund Reallocation Sentiments. Manuscript under review, Journal of Criminal Justice

Conference Presentations

American Society of Criminology

November 2024

Presentations

Coauthor, Beyond George Floyd: Examining the Intersection of Race, Racial Resentment, and Police Fund Reallocation Sentiments, 2024, currently under R&R, Journal of Criminal Justice

Panel Discussions

Roundtable: Critical Issues in Policing, 2024

Teaching Experience

Teaching Assistant, Undergraduate Research Methods

August – December 2024

College of Public Affairs and Community Service, University of Nebraska Omaha

University Service

Prevention Ambassador

December 2022 – May 2024

Wichita State University, Health Outreach Prevention and Education (HOPE) Services

- Prevention Ambassador with HOPE Services
- Administered the Suspenders4Hope™ campaign, promoting recovery and resilience
- Helped lead projects and events to spread health and safety awareness
- Worked on large team with undergraduate students and faculty

Note Taker

August – December 2022

Wichita State University, Office of Disability Services

- Volunteered as a notetaker in macroeconomics for student with hearing impairment
- Took regimented notes every single day of class

References

Dr. Justin Nix, Associate Professor, Master of Arts Program Director

School of Criminology and Criminal Justice

University of Nebraska Omaha

(402) 554-6157 | jnix@unomaha.edu

Dr. Christi Metcalfe, Associate Professor, Graduate Program Director

Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice

University of South Carolina

(803) 777-6532 | cmetcalf@mailbox.sc.edu

Dr. Michael Birzer, Professor, Graduate Coordinator, Director of Undergraduate Research

School of Criminal Justice

Wichita State University

(316) 978-6525 | michael.birzer@wichita.edu

Dr. Yumi Suzuki, Associate Professor

School of Criminal Justice

Wichita State University

(316) 978-6962 | yumi.suzuki@wichita.edu